Accuracy/Verification of Information

I promise that the information provided in this employment application (and accompanying resume or documentation, if any) is true and complete, and I understand that any false or misleading information or significant omissions may disqualify me from further consideration for employment, and may lead to my dismissal from employment, if discovered at a later date. I agree to immediately notify Piccadilly Valet if I should be convicted of a felony, or any crime involving dishonesty, breach of trust, controlled substances, sexual misconduct, abuse, or violence, while my job application is pending, or during my period of employment, if hired.

I understand that this application does not create a contract of employment. I understand that, if hired, I am obliged to comply with any and all current and subsequently adopted Piccadilly policies. I understand and agree that, if hired my employment is for no definite period of time, and may, regardless of the date of payment of my wages or salary, be terminated at any time for any reason, with or without notice.

I authorize any person, school, current employer, past employer's), and organizations named in this application (and accompanying resume, if any) to provide Piccadilly with any information and opinion requested by Piccadilly in connection with any application, and I release such person and organizations from any legal liability in making such statements.

As part of your application for employment, you may be asked to sign a release of information authorization. This is to allow the company to verify your references and, in the company's discretion, to perform other background investigations to determine your qualification for employment. Through a separate agency, we may investigate your academic credentials, prior employment, personal/professional references, credit record, motor vehicle record, and/or criminal record.
